GERMANS FORCE RUSSIANS.
Berlin, July 20.—German troops have pushed forward through three strong Russian zones of defenses between Sereth and Zlota-Lipa rivers in eastern Galicia, says today's official statement. The Russians suffered heavily, the statement adds, and are retreating in disorder. The Germans took a few thousand prisoners.

American Training Camp in France.
July 20.—By the Associated Press.—Major General William L. Siebert went through his entire camp today on the first official inspection tour he has made. From early morning until late in the afternoon he made the rounds and did not call it a day until he had examined each set of quarters and inspected virtually every man in his command.

As the entire army is divided into squads, the majority of which are billeted out with the inhabitants of the district, the task of inspection was a tremendous one and could be accomplished only by the amazing activity of the general, who almost ran his staff off his legs and set a pace obviously stiff for the youngest of the men. The result of the inspection was apparently satisfactory in the main, for the general criticized only seldom and everywhere had a good word for the results achieved by the troops in cleaning up the quarters in which they have moved.

Find Little to Criticize.
Here and there he found lack of cleanliness and proper sanitation, which he ordered rectified. Occasionally also, in passing in front of the troops lined up for his examination, he found time to stop and exchange a word and ask questions.

The inspection trip began at 7:30 o'clock in the morning for the general is an early riser, and at noon he returned to his headquarters only long enough to snatch a hasty luncheon and started again. Rain fell in a steady stream most of the time, but that did not deter the inspection.

General Siebert noted that many soldiers were without the regulation bronze button bearing the letters U. S., which is worn on the collar. Investigation showed that some of the men had actually lost the insignia, while others had thoughtlessly given their buttons away to admirers. Three sides were constantly suggestions for alterations or noting recommendations, while the officers of each regiment followed by closely as General Siebert's pace would permit.

Midday for Troops.
The day was a partial holiday for the troops, for the inspection relieved them from drills for the period of its duration. Hardly had the general vanished on the way to the next inspection point, when the men were hard at work again mastering the technique of modern warfare.

The encampment of American troops here has always metamorphosed this thoroughly and distinctively French town into an American community notwithstanding the fact that the soldiers have taken notable pains to adapt themselves to the customs and habits of their hosts.

Yesterday an American corporal opened a barber shop in an abandoned quarters of a one time French barber who is now at the front. Almost immediately the American crowd gathered virtually all the trade in town. He had so many customers, both French and American, that he announced that business here was far better than in his previous shops in Manila, Hawaii, Alaska and on the Mexican border.

Like Cotton Belts.
As the kits have been unpacked, photographs have made their appearance, and the daily military concerts are supplemented by informal phonograph recitals. The French soldiers who are camping adjacent to the American equipment, are outspoken admirers of the American equipment and its practicability. They pay particular praise to the cotton belt worn by the Americans, which, they say, has not an equal as a feasible means for carrying the multitudinous gear, such as cartridges, pistol, knife and other things.

They express wonder at the huge number of soldiers among the American troops who carry pistols. They admire also the new harness and the trappings of horses and mules, and envy every American soldier their comfortable cots and sleeping equipment. Likewise, they marvel at the independence of the American officers, who shift almost entirely for themselves without the aid of customary orderlies and servants.

Several thousand soldiers were made happy today when many letters or packages arrived and were distributed among the various camps.

HONORABLE TERMINATION OF WAR
GERMANY'S DESIRE, MICHAELIS
TELLS PARTIES IN FIRST SPEECH

Copenhagen, July 20.—Chancellor Michaelis, in a speech in the reichstag, said that Germany would not continue the war a day longer if it could obtain an honorable peace. America's intervention was not regarded with serious concern. The German fleet, particularly the submarines, he said, would master the situation. The reichstag adopted the majority peace resolution by a vote of 314 to 116.

Burning Question.
"The burning question in our hearts, however, is how much longer the war is to last. With this I come to a matter which stands in the center of all our interests, and all our proceedings today. Germany did not desire the war in order to make violent conquest and therefore will not continue the war a day longer merely for the sake of conquest, if it could obtain an honorable peace.

"The Germans," he continued, "wish to conclude peace as combatants themselves invisible. A condition of peace was the inviolability of German territory. No parley was possible with the enemy demanding cessation of German soil."

State, Passes Divide

DEATH COMES ONE DAY AFTER BIRTHDAY

James W. Foley of Medora, father of J. W. Foley, North Dakota's poet, and well known throughout the state, died at his home early today. Foley was 72 years of age, death coming the next day after a birthday dinner given at his home. He was a personal friend of Theodore Roosevelt.

ever since the latter's ranch days near Medora, and was one of the best informed and known men in the state.

Many of Foley's friends, old timers, pioneers in the state, live in Bismarck. He was one of the state's historians, having been here since the early '80s. Many historical writings have come from the pen of the aged man and have appeared in the Tribune from time to time. Several letters from him are on file in the Tribune office at this time, awaiting publication.

BLAKE KILLED AT JAMESTOWN

Grace City, N. D., July 20.—William Blake of Jamestown, state humane officer for years, and well known throughout the state, was instantly killed when his automobile stopped on a railroad track near here today. The inquest will be held here late today.

PROMINENT GRARY
MAN PASSES AWAY

Word was received in this city Thursday afternoon of the death of William F. Orr of Grary, N. D. The deceased, a life-long resident of North Dakota, was well known throughout the state.

Surviving him are his widow, four children and two sisters. Mrs. Henry Modelman of Grary and Mrs. W. F. Crowley of Bismarck. The funeral will be held from the late residence at Grary.

CONDITIONS GOOD

Livestock conditions in the state at large are generally good, reported Dr. W. F. Crews, secretary of the livestock sanitary board, this morning. Cattle have come into midsummer in line shape. The only question now is whether there will be enough grass to carry them over until marketing time.

APPORTION 209
FOR SERVICE
FROM BURLEIGH

Quotas for Various Counties in Selective Conscription Have Been Figured Out

NET NUMBER FOR SOME DISTRICTS NOT FIGURED

Richland county, with 127, has the largest number of credits of any county in North Dakota, according to a compilation of quotas and credits completed in the adjutant general's office last evening. Richland's gross quota for the draft is 221, but its credits bring the number to be drawn today down to 94. Barnes, with 100, ranks second in the matter of credits, reducing its quota from 231 gross to 131 net. Cass, with a quota of 536, has only 67 credits, and its net quota is 469. Grand Forks, whose gross is 333, has 76 credits, reducing its net quota to 257. Stark's quota of 168 is reduced to 92 by 76 credits for men now in service, and Walsh's quota of 221 is cut by credits to 146.

Outside Credits.
Among outside states which have credits in North Dakota counties are Minnesota, with 54; Montana, 7; Wisconsin, 3, and Iowa, 2. South Dakota, Missouri, Illinois, Washington and Oregon each have one.

The population upon which North Dakota's quota is based is 708,992; gross quota, 7,737; credits, 2,118; net quota, 5,606.

Net County Quotas

Net county quotas for all but Burleigh, Morton and Stutsman counties were announced Thursday evening, as follows, by Charles Leismann, in charge of this detail in the adjutant general's office:

Board to Handle Food Situation
Definitely Decided Upon by Senate

FIGHT IS KEPT UP
UPON HERBERT HOOVER

But Friends in Senate Are Able to Defeat His Opponents

Washington, D. C., July 20.—The administration food control bill has approached final form in the senate.

Under the limited debate agreement, the senate approved, 60 to 16, an amendment drafted at joint conferences of democratic and republican leaders to hurry government control of foods, feeds and fuels, including kerosene and gasoline and vest the administrative authority in three salaried members instead of a single individual. Although the action will be subject to consideration before Saturday's final vote on the bill, it is to stand and to be accepted by the house in conference.

$2.00 Price May Stand.
Tomorrow the senate expects to dispose of the modified federal licensing section and that fixing a minimum price for wheat. A price of $2 per bushel at primary markets is expected to have the support of a large group of senators.

Partisan lines were erased in today's voting. The name of Herbert Hoover was frequently brought into the discussion and although the senate voted for food commission instead of a single administrator, it rejected by overwhelming vote amendments by Senator Reed, who has assailed Mr. Hoover bitterly, designed to prevent him from serving. Reed was vigorously criticized by Senators Hollis, Williams and others for his attack upon Mr. Hoover.

Vote Against Substitute.
The amendment limiting the necessities for government control and providing for the food board, was accepted after many futile attempts to name other articles for government regulation. The senators voting against the substitute were:

Borah, Cummins, France, Gronna, Hitchcock, Huston, Jones of Washington, Kellogg, La Follette, McNary, Nelson, Norris, Reed, Sherman, Sutherland and Townsend.

An amendment by Senator Kenyon seeking to include iron ore and its products, including steel, farm implements and tools and binding twine, was rejected, 44 to 28. The senate also rejected by identical votes of 50 to 27 amendments by Senator Newlands to add iron, steel, copper and aluminum and its products, and by Senator Borah to add fertilizers and their ingredients. Senator Huston's amendment to give the president power at any time to place additional products under federal control, was rejected 58 to 15.

About Hoover Appointment.
During a reference of the controversy over Herbert Hoover's appointment, an amendment under which Mr. Hoover would be specifically designated as food administrator was introduced by Mr. Jones of Washington, who declared the food control fight had centered around Mr. Hoover and that the senate "should definitely decide if it wants him appointed."

Senator Knox protested that by naming a man the senate would be assuming the functions of the president, contrary to the constitution. Senator Jones then withdrew his amendment, but Senator Shafroth re-offered it with Mr. Hoover's name left out. Speeches supporting it were made by Senator Borah and others, but it was voted down 63 to 10.

AUSTIN RESIGNS FROM POST WITH STATE TO TAKE INSURANCE JOBS

W. D. Austin, for many years deputy insurance commissioner and one of the best known insurance men in the northwest, today tendered his resignation to insurance commissioner Olsen with a view to accepting Aug. 1 the executive secretaryship of the North Dakota Mercantile Mutual Insurance company, whose home offices are at Fargo.

MILITARY WEDDINGS

Three Missouri Slope Couples

Three military weddings were celebrated in Bismarck this week, the contracting parties being Corporal James Mullen ofandan and Miss Carrie Pink of Bismarck; Private R. F. Fleak of Killdeer and Miss Edith White of Bismarck; and Sergeant William Andrew ofandan and Miss Christine Pillen of Bismarck.

Drawn

All plans laid for drawing were kicked over at the last moment, owing to errors in the registration boards. It was decided to abandon the master key and draw out 10,000 serial numbers, which would apply in every county of the nation or draft district.

These numbers were flashed to the states as quickly as they could be tabulated. The Tribune posted two men at the adjutant general's office, compiling the names of the men drawn in this section of the state. Lists from only 18 counties were available, however. The results are given below. Within a time to be specified later these men must report, when the date for physical examination is set. The call for examination will be posted at the office of the local board, which, in most instances, will be at the court house. At that time all data relative to exemptions will be considered.

The Tribune has given the name where the record was available. But these numbers apply uniformly in every county of the state. If your name does not appear, just look for your number and that will denote whether you have been drafted to appear before the examining board. The fact that your name has been drawn does not mean you will be selected for actual service. You must submit to a rigid physical examination and the matter of exemption will be carefully gone into. It is also possible that your vocation may exempt you in addition to other reasons for exemption, which The Tribune has published from time to time.

The numbers and holders drawn to date follow.

THOUSAND OF NUMBERS DRAWN TO DETERMINE WHO SHALL BE CALLED TO MILITARY SERVICE

10,500 Capsules Containing Slip Taken
From Receptacle by Blindfolded Man
—Scene Staged at Capital

THOSE SELECTED MUST REPORT
FOR PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Washington, July 20.—The lottery fixed order of liability for military service of the ten million men registered for the war began at 9:49 o'clock this morning. Tonight every man will know whether he is among the first 1,370,000 to be called for local exemption boards.

From the 1,370,000 the board's are to select 687,000 for America's first draft army of 500,000 and to fill up vacancies in the National Guard and the regular army.

In a committee room of the Senate building with representatives of the press present, War Department officials and members of the Senate and House military committees began the drawing of 10,500 slips bearing numbers corresponding with the serial number of each registrant in the country.

Secretary Baker was the first man to withdraw a capsule enclosed slip from a great glass bowl. Blindfolded he drew number 258. In every registered district in which are as many men as 258 are registered, No. 258 heads the list of those to be called.

Chairman Chamberlain of the Senate military committee blindfolded and plainly nervous, drew a capsule.

"The second number is 2,522," the announcer shouted. It was unofficially estimated that approximately one million men were represented in the first 1,000 numbers which were drawn by 11:30 o'clock, a little over an hour and a half after the drawing began.

In the first thousand numbers drawn, there were 270 numbers which affected the normal district of 3,000 registrants. Applying this to the entire country, these 2,700 serial numbers below 3,000 should designate approximately one million two hundred thousand names.

TACTICS OF BRITISH

Washington, July 20.—Several high naval officials have made an appeal to President Wilson to direct the American navy to initiate an offensive against Germany. The president is said to feel strongly about the shipping question arising on the success of the German submarine campaign, but whether he has resolved on action by the fleet has not been disclosed. Facts are becoming known in Washington which have been concealed from the people.

It was declared in a responsible quarter that it has been the policy of the British government to practice concealment and that this has been adopted by the United States.

ANNUAL CONVENTION
OF DAKOTA W. C. T. U.Yearly Gathering of Temperance
Workers Opens in Valley
City Saturday

Fargo, N. D., July 20.—The 25th annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of North Dakota will be held in Valley City, N. D., July 21-24, according to an announcement made here by Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, president, and will be attended by guests of national prominence. Among the latter are Miss A. A. Gordon, national president of the order, of Evanston, Ill., and Mrs. Ida B. Wise, president of the Iowa W. C. T. U. Leading state workers will also attend the convention. It was announced, in a body.

Instead of the usual banquet and line with economic saving of food, stuffs advocated by President Wilson, a social tea will be served the first evening, September 21, at which addresses of welcome will be delivered.

Notwithstanding the war, this year just closed has been one of the most wonderful temperance victories in both the state and the nation, and the various unions of the state are asked to greet the national delegates to Valley City according to the announcement made public by the president today.

The Numbers.

Drawing for the war army, scheduled to begin at 9:30, was delayed a few minutes, while moving picture men and official photographers snapped the stage set for the momentous scene, and Secretary Baker and Provost Marshal General Crowder made statements explaining the process.

The first number drawn was 258.

NEWS OF NORTH DAKOTA AND NORTHWEST

DEADLY HAY TRACK LAYS TWO PROMINENT FARMERS BY HEELS

Cloyd Kurtz Badly Used Up in Fall—Hague Man Has Shattered Shoulder Blade

Hazleton, N. D., July 20.—The deadly hay track was responsible for two serious accidents, occurring within a few miles and within a few hours of one another at Hazleton and Hague. At Hazleton, Cloyd Kurtz, one of the most promising young farmers in Emmons county, while repairing a hay track was precipitated to the floor of his barn, 27 feet below, when some poorly secured planks gave way. An ankle and two ribs were broken and his shoulder was dislocated. It is feared that internal injuries may develop.

Insurance Company Wants Farm Labor Left Out of Draft

Jamestown, N. D., July 20.—The Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance association of North Dakota concluded its annual convention here with the adoption of resolutions calling over the governor and North Dakota representatives in congress to use their influence to have farm labor exempted from draft, on the ground that experienced men and boys now on the farms cannot be satisfactorily replaced with transient labor.

BEULAH CROPS GOOD Many Predictions Small Grains Will Exceed Average

Beulah, N. D., July 20.—A general improvement in crop conditions has followed last week's rains. Wheat and oats will be short at best, but prospects for early sown flax are good. Much of the flax that went in late has not come up, owing to the dry weather. Corn is the one crop which looks like a mortgage lifter. There is a division of opinion as to small grains, many predicting, in spite of short straw, more than an average yield.

MONTANA PIONEERS 34th Annual Meeting to Be Held in September

Livingston, Mont., July 20.—The 34th annual meeting of the Pioneers of Montana will be held here Sept. 5 to 8. According to J. U. Sanders, the secretary, this organization, formed in 1884, now has 1,100 members. Originally there were 2500, but the ranks are rapidly thinning. William A. Clark, Jr., is one of the prominent old timers who is showing an active interest in the organization.

Waiting Room Made Union Station When Barbara Takes Boom

Hazleton, N. D., July 20.—The waiting room within a few weeks of a simple waiting room for a long-horned union station. In the town of Hazleton, in the heart of a real boom, Barbara has a full time union station agent, a lumber yard, a hotel, a number of residences, and a number of other enterprises. The town is a boom town, and the boom is a boom.

Thought Draft Law Unconstitutional; Jail Changes Mind

Highwood, Mont., July 20.—Declining to register on the grounds that he believed the selective service law unconstitutional, Thomas R. Robinson, an attorney, after spending a few weeks in the county jail at Helena, changed his mind as to the constitutionality of the act, pleaded guilty of being a slacker, and drew a 10-day sentence in the Lewis and Clark county jail. He also registered.

TOBACCO HABIT EASILY OVERCOME

A New Yorker, of wide experience, has written a book telling how the tobacco or snuff habit may be easily and quickly banished with delightful benefit. The author, Edward J. Woods, 1423 M. Station E. New York City, will mail his book free on request. The health improves wonderfully after tobacco craving is conquered. Calmness, tranquil sleep, clear eyes, normal appetite, good digestion, manly vigor, strong memory and a general gain in efficiency are among the many benefits reported. Get rid of that nervous, irritable feeling; no more need of pipe, cigar, cigarette, snuff or chewing tobacco to pacify morbid desire.

LIST OF REGISTRANTS IN SELECTIVE DRAFT CONTINUED FROM YESTERDAY

Editor's Note—This completes names of those registered in Burleigh county. Do not confuse this list with the ones actually drawn for service. The numbers drawn in Washington today are printed in another column and, of course, possess more significance.

The following serial list of registrants in the selective draft is continued from yesterday. Each person registered should have his own number and keep it in mind until Friday, when the drawing will be made. The list will be continued until the last number, 1798, is printed. To find his name the registrant first locates the precinct in which he registered, and then finds it in alphabetical order.

FEDERAL JURY FINDS 19 BILLS; IS STILL BUSY

Up to Date No Arrests Have Been Made on Any Indictments

TWO WEEKS OF WORK FACES MEMBERS

Fargo, July 20.—Nineteen true bills have been reported by the federal grand jury after three days' grind, during which 21 cases were probed. It was rumored in the corridors of the federal building last night. Up to a late hour last night no arrests had been made by the marshal's office, but some are expected soon.

Several witnesses from Portland, Ore., and Seattle, Wash., are here to testify before probers and the list of witnesses are being added to daily. Probably two weeks' work is still ahead of the grand jury, it is reported.

Yesterday nine cases were presented to the grand jury by the district attorney's office and eight indictments returned. Out of the nine cases investigated Wednesday, six true bills resulted and five were reported the first day.

Severt, Nichols, 20, and Edward Oherm, 60, arrested yesterday morning by the city police, charged with bringing whiskey across the river from Moorhead into prohibition territory, were taken before the grand jury yesterday. It is claimed indictments were returned against the two men.

Madland and John Rupp, are in the city today on business matters. C. G. Trygg from Trygg township and A. H. Klipstein of Menoken township are in the city today on matters pertaining to the schools in their districts.

L. E. Wang of Sims, a business man of that place, was in the city today. Ben Utter of Mott was among capital city visitors last night and today.

drawing by thousands and to draw 10,500 numbers, which is in excess of the highest number of cards under the jurisdiction of any board.

"The only change in the plan will be that there will be one drawing instead of two. The advantage will be greater simplicity. The disadvantage will be that it will require 10 hours to complete."

Other Plans Unchanged.

The stage setting for the great lottery was changed. It took place in the public hearing room of the senate office building. The invited guests who were with Secretary Baker of the war department and watched the proceedings were members of the senate and house military committees.

The only other persons present, according to plans last night, were a limited number of newspaper correspondents, photographers to take both still views and motion pictures of the historic event, and the officials of General Crowder's office who will conduct the drawing.

In the drawing itself were nine factors. The principals were a blindfolded man who constantly stirs the 10,500 black capsules in the great glass bowl in which they have been placed another blindfolded man who drew the capsules from the bowl one at a time, and two announcers, one standing at each side of the bowl and to whom the capsules were handed in turn as they were drawn.

Numbers on Blackboard.

The announcers broke the capsules as they received them, extracted the tiny slip of paper on which a number was stamped, and called the number to three tally clerks. The slip was then handed to an official in front of the bowl, who verified the announcer's report, and, on his verification, another man, stationed at a great blackboard, wrote the number in its order on the board.

The board held 1,000 numbers. When it was filled, it was taken out of the room, photographed, cleaned off and returned, the drawing continuing meanwhile with a second board in use.

The official record of the drawing which will be furnished to the local exemption boards and in accordance with which they will call out the men to fill each district quota, will be made up in books of 11 pages, each page being a photographic facsimile of the blackboard. The exemption boards will take no action toward summoning their men until these books reach them through the mails.

New Jersey Discovers Flaw.

The telephone message referred to by General Crowder in his statement, came from the adjutant general of New Jersey. When that officer learned through publication of the system of double drawing announced earlier in the day, he saw that a great injustice would be done in his state because of the way in which the local boards had given serial numbers to the cards from the registration precincts.

The New Jersey officer promptly communicated his discovery to the office of the provost marshal general. A hasty conference of officials was called behind locked doors and a quick search made in the local board records of many states which have been received here. A similar situation was found to exist in many parts of the country. In some instances negro and white registrants had been classified in separate groups and the serial numbers ran accordingly. In others aliens were separated and given their own group of serial numbers.

Four hours after the drawing started, about 2,400 numbers had been drawn and the probers were slowing down in their work. It was estimated that the last number might not be out before 3 o'clock tomorrow morning.

HART AT ORPHEUM AND GRAND TONIGHT

The many followers of William S. Hart will have another opportunity to see this famous character of western roles in his latest play tonight at the Grand and Orpheum theaters, when "Truthful Tulliver" will be shown. Like all Hart productions everyone can rest assured of seeing a thrilling play from start to finish. In addition to the Hart feature the management has secured a two-reel Keystone comedy featuring Ford Sterling, known by every movie fan in the country. Keystone comedies are a class by themselves and this one tonight comes with reports of being a rip-roaring one every minute. In order that everyone will have a chance to see this program the same show will be presented at both the Grand and Orpheum commencing at 7 o'clock at both theaters, the second performance to start at 9:15. You will have to go early if you wish a seat in the first show.

PEACE RESOLUTION.
Germany is now talking of a peace which has its source not in the crown council, dominated by the kaiser, but in the hearts of the German people, broken under the weight of an unnecessary and criminal war.

Chancellor Michaelis is merely a stop-gap. He echoes the commands of the crown prince and the military caste which is dragging the Empire deeper into the muck and mire of a war that respects neither women or children or the established laws of nations.

Unless signs lie, the German people ultimately will be heard and the military puppets who persist in turning a deaf ear will be swept from their tottering pedestals, even as the Bourbons were in France.

Michaelis minimized the effect of America's intervention, a significant sign that the German people, the man in the street, has been weighing the new odds that even more decisively turn the scales against a realization of the Pan-German dream of the Hohenzollerns.

No one has ever questioned the heart of the German people. This is not a war against a race, but against a regime that would sacrifice political freedom upon the altar of selfish ambition; that would stifle democracy for another century and turn back governmental progress for generations to come.

The facts are meagre at this writing, but there goes up over the entire country upon this day, as men are being drawn for military service, a longing that the peace discussion in Germany comes from the heart of the German people and is untainted by Prussian intrigue.

Of course Michaelis and the kaiser want peace. So does the devil.

MORE THAN $75,000.
Martin Sweeney, famous jockey 35 years ago, had been missing nearly that long. To find him his sister in Chicago advertised that a fortune of $75,000 awaited him.

It didn't. The fortune was a myth. And one might have thought a man so careful to conceal his whereabouts so long, would be peeved if lured from hiding by a ruse, with disappointment as the sequel.

But Fate saves Martin Sweeney's sister from his displeasure, because the sister has probably saved Sweeney from prison. Her advertisement found him in Sing Sing, where he had served 17 years of a 20-year sentence.

When Governor Whitman acknowledged receipt of a plea for clemency the facts came out. And the freedom his sister won for him will be to Sweeney an acceptable substitute for the $75,000 fortune existing only in her imagination.

Freedom from prison or $75,000? In Sweeney's place which would you rather have?

If German gold isn't assisting the I W W German spirit is.

A ONE-LIVED CAT.
Perhaps there is some mysterious yet unexplained element in the atmosphere of the middle west which exercises a deleterious effect upon the iron constitution and physical equilibrium of a cat.

Either that, or else some uncanny influence is shed from the remaining hand of the one-armed peddler who passed through Brookfield, Mo.

Because, the minute that peddler touched the head of a flourishing brookfield cat the hapless cat recoiled suddenly upon its back and relinquished all of its nine lives in one gasp.

Such a digital power over the lives of cats is remarkable, but it is no less remarkable than the presence of a volatile atmospheric essence fatal to cats. And unless somebody has a third explanation the peddler's power as a cat-killer might as well be accepted.

After they discovered that similar sudden demises in the kingdom marked the one-armed peddler's trail they arrested the man—which is no way to treat a peddler who can kill cats with a wave of the hand, just like that.

Some men whose homes are prolific of cat families would almost be willing to lose one arm in order to achieve the power of killing cats with the other arm. After a man has dragged a bag of cats to the nearest creek in dry weather the arm that held the bag feels as if it had been amputated, anyway.

The only real mystery about the occurrence is this: If a man possesses a miraculous cat-slaying power which, like the wand of Midas, would pour the riches of the world into his lap—if properly advertised—why should he remain a peddler?

With the thermometer at 112 at Wellington, Kan., no wonder the state is dry.

TAGGED FOR LIFE.
Willie Goss, 7, started this week from the home of his father, Harry Goss, in Champaign, Ill., on a 2,000-mile journey to Los Angeles. His destination was printed on a tag pinned to his coat.

What a chance his parents took to send that little shaver all that way alone, guided just by a tag through all the world's perils!

Let's see. How's your boy tagged? He's starting out on life's journey. Isn't he? More than 2,000 miles! A journey perhaps all over the face of the earth, a journey of maybe three score and ten years.

You will not be with him all the time. He'll go where he is tagged to go. Have you tagged him at all? And what destination tags you printed on his tag?

Have loving care, and thoughtful direction and wise discipline and thorough education written on his way-bill, Success City? Or is his tag blank? Or so carelessly pinned at about the 25-year station it will drop off?

What a chance? Well, how is your boy tagged?

And now they've fined Joey Tinker $100 for spitting into an umpire's face at Columbus. Talk about personal liberty!

EMBARGO VS. KING COTTON.
The South will be called upon for all its patriotism and the president for all his courage when he faces ordering an embargo upon cotton exports to neutral Europe.

Despite efforts to have the South diversify its crops cotton is still king. A big crop of cotton and a buying world mean prosperity for the South, a poor crop or a closed market, hard times.

The South also happens to be the mainstay of the president's political party. Anything that would seem to hit at cotton is going to be of vital importance to democratic leaders.

Nevertheless the problem has to be met. Germany is wildly anxious for cotton for explosives and clothes. Up to now American cotton has been going to Germany in considerable quantities. The only way to prevent this is to apply the embargo to neutrals.

Nearly 100,000,000 pounds of cotton beyond the neutrals' normal needs have gone to them during the war. Denmark, Holland, Sweden, Norway and Spain all shared. Nor can they make the excuse they have made about food and metals—that they used to get much from Germany and other European countries. The cotton grown in Germany is represented by zero.

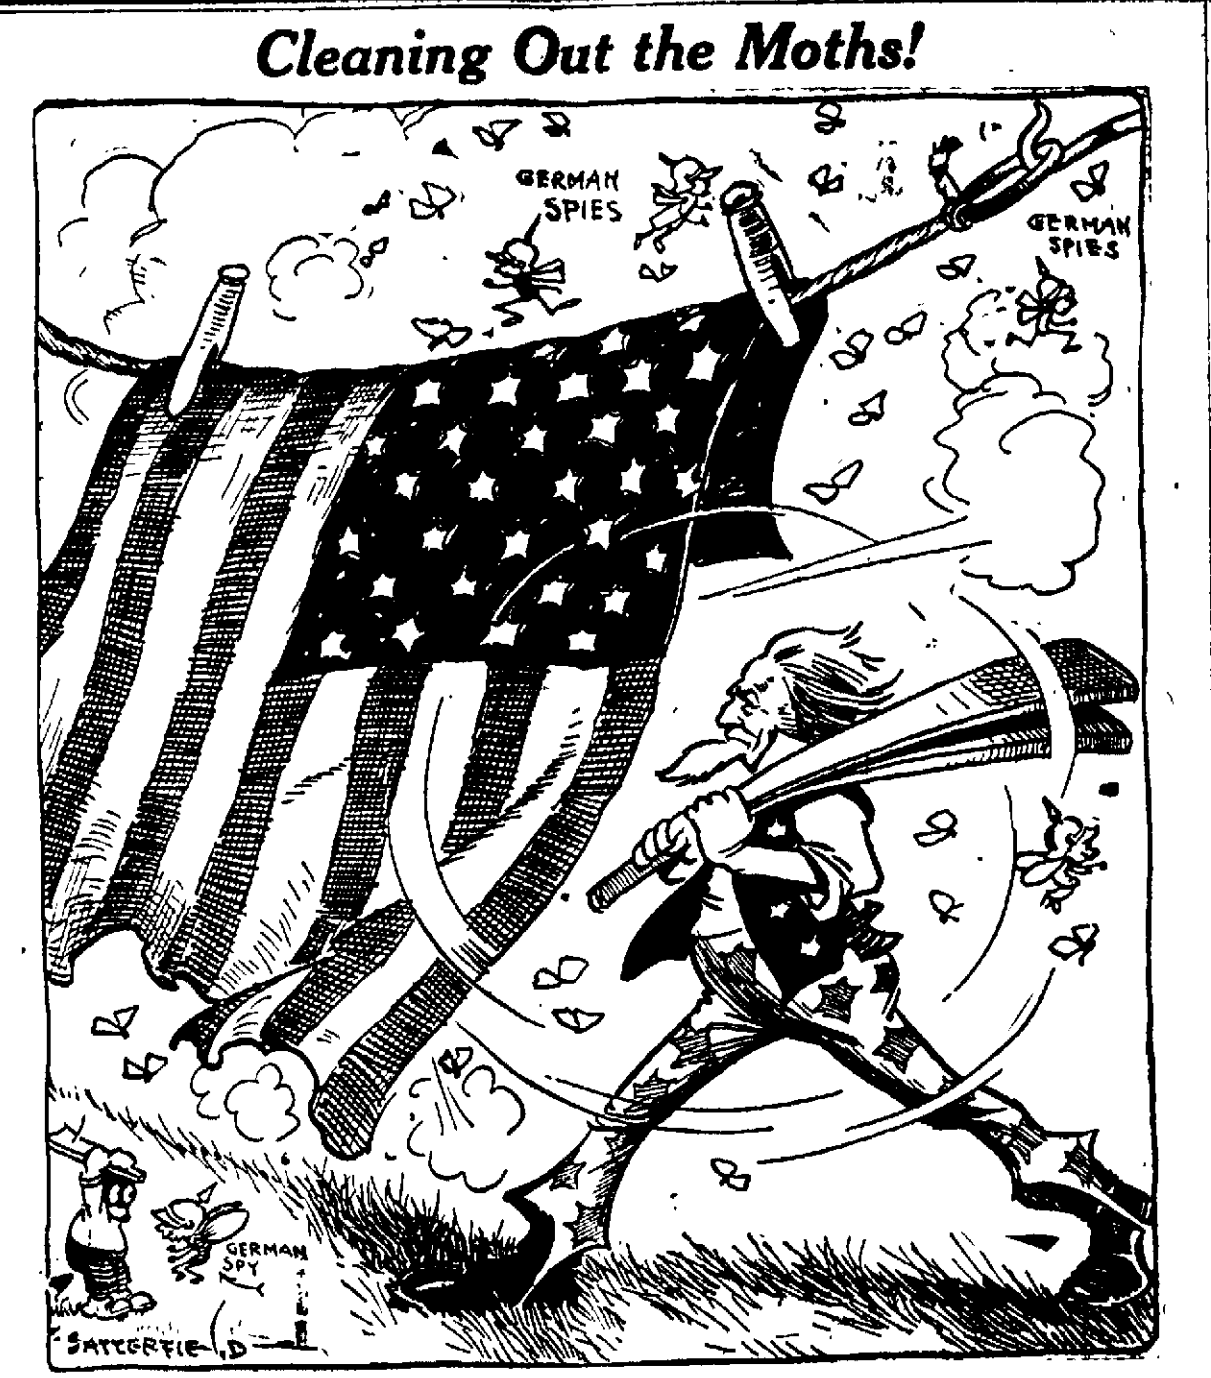

The irresistible conclusion is that American cotton, for the past three years, has gone into explosives that have been blasting the lives out of the soldiers of our allies.

If we do not put a stop to the exportation, cotton grown on southern fields will blast the lives out of American boys—some of them sons of the very men who raised the cotton. More, it will be used in protecting German soldiers from the winter cold.

No real patriot will desire any such thing as that.

The Kansas City man who asked a divorce because of too many kisses really had no kick coming, as long as they were all bestowed upon him.

If Secretary Baker gets us up an army immune against wine, women and cigarettes it ought to be reviewed where everybody can see it, for the moral effect.

Handicap Tourney Proves Popular Golf Event

An interesting handicap tourney was played on the local links last evening. Folsom and Bodenstab were made "scratch" players and all others were given a handicap of two-fifths of their score above bogey. The entrance fee was fifty cents. Eight teams of two players each qualified for the play.

A prize of one 75-cent golf ball was given to the winner of each team, and three golf balls were given for the low score of the tourney. Messrs. Nichols, Goddard and Folsom were tied, at 43 for low score, and took another ball each from the field play.

The teams were mated and their score follows:

Treacy, R. A., 57; handicap, 7; score, 60. Dobler, H. S., 56; handicap, 6; score, 60.

Grace, Judge, 51; handicap, 4; score, 47. Roberts, O. W., 57; handicap, 7; score, 60.

Roberts, Jr., 53; handicap, 5; score, 48. Larabee, Dr., 50; handicap, 4; score, 46.

Copelin, F. A., 56; handicap, 6; score, 50. Fields, R. P., 60; handicap, 8; score, 52.

Folsom, L. L., 43; handicap, none; score, 43. McLean, G.; handicap, 4; score, 47.

Nichols, C. W., 45; handicap, 2; score, 43. Parsons, W. E., 52; handicap, 5; score, 47.

Bodenstab, Dr., 48; handicap, none; score, 48. Goddard, H. P., 45; handicap, 2; score, 43.

Handicap tournaments will be put on at the local links every Thursday evening at 6:30 during the balance of July and August.

The ladies committee is planning some weekly plays, and the general committee will have mixed forenoon arranged in the near future.

Motors from Mandan.

Mrs. Fred Barker motored over from Mandan yesterday. While here she was the guest of Mrs. A. E. Preston, returning to her home last evening.

On Extended Visit.

Mrs. L. G. Simpson of Fifth street leaves tonight for an extended visit at Rock Island and Moline, Ill. She will also visit several places in Minnesota and will return in about a month.

Picnic at Custer Park.

Five girls of the younger high school class enjoyed a picnic at Custer park yesterday afternoon. Games and singing made a most pleasant afternoon. Those present were: Theodore, Fitch, Excuse, Schukla, Agnes Carson, Imogene McClain and Lucille Lathi.

Entertains for 600.

Mrs. A. E. Preston entertained this week in honor of her son, Kenneth, the event being the boy's twelfth birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing games, after which dainty refreshments were served. The honor guest received many remembrances of the day.

Golfers to Mandan.

The Bismarck golfers have received an invitation from the Mandan club to join in play on the Mandan links Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. It is believed many of the local players will accept the invitation.

Those expecting to go should notify the local committee this evening so that the Mandan committee may be advised of the number that may be expected.

CITY NEWS

From Driscoll—Attorney E. C. Rubel of Driscoll was in the city last night and this morning on business matters.

For Operation—Fred Pfuff, editor and publisher of the Baldwin Bulletin, has entered a hospital here to undergo an operation.

Refused to Register—The sheriff of Burleigh county today apprehended a man, whose name was not given out, for dodging the draft. It is said the man also "talked too much." He is being held in the county jail pending his disposal.

From Fargo—Prof. Herbert A. Hard of Fargo, accompanied by his daughter, is spending the day in Bismarck today. It will be remembered Prof. Hard spent some time here during the summer of 1916.

FRECKLES

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots

There's no longer the slightest need of feeling ashamed of your freckles, as the prescription ointment—double strength—is guaranteed to remove these homely spots.

Simply get an ounce of ointment—double strength—from any drugist and apply a little of it night and morning and you should soon see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while in lighter ones have vanished entirely. It is seldom that more than an ounce is needed to completely clear the skin and gain a beautiful clear complexion.

Be sure to ask for the double strength ointment as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

en. Later in the afternoon ice cream and cake were served.

The Baldwin people are fortunate in having Mr. Courts as their Sunday school leader. The attendance at first was 10. The enrollment is now 35.

OFFICIAL REPORT PLACES BISMARCK AT HEAD OF STATE

Capital City Surpasses Even Minot in Red Cross Drive—Devils Lake Does Well.

Official reports from the Red Cross war council show that North Dakota supported the war fund to the extent of $111,481.09, apportioned as follows: Bismarck, $32,666.52; Coopersburg, $2,000; Devils Lake, $16,518.00; Dickinson, $4,350.70; Fessenden, $2,500; Grand Forks, $18,000; Fargo, $285.25; Laramie, $1,255; Minot, $25,447.82; New England, $1,342.50; Rolla, $2,000; Rugby, $499.99; Williston, $2,554.56.

People throughout the state are asking, "what's the matter with Fargo?" The Gate City, metropolis to North Dakota, ignored the Red Cross movement at the time the big drive was on. Up to July 9, when the above official report was issued from Red Cross headquarters, Fargo hadn't been given credit for subscribing a penny to the Red Cross movement. Next week the Gate City intends to give the people from around the state an opportunity to make good Fargo's shortcoming by establishing a Red Cross booth at the Cass county fair. Other cities which got into the game at the drop of the hat, did their bit without outside assistance.

Fargo is finding it difficult to recruit to anything like war strength one company of the North Dakota National Guard, while Grand Forks, Minot and Bismarck, and even Dickinson, with only a third of Fargo's population, have easily raised two companies. North Dakotans who in the past were inclined to look to Fargo for leadership are wondering what new influence is at work there.

towns which provide scales and office facilities.

LISTING ELEVATORS—

Miss Florence Murray of Dr. E. F. Ladd's stenographic force is engaged at the office of the railway commission in listing North Dakota's 2,200 elevators and their managers in order that Dr. Ladd may appoint his deputy grain inspectors.

WANT CAMPS CLEAN—

The governor's office is being showered with petitions from women's clubs, the P. E. O. Sisterhood, the W. C. T. U., church organizations and women's societies generally demanding that conditions surrounding camps in which North Dakota troops are mobilized and concentrated be made clean and sanitary, both morally and materially. Especial emphasis is laid upon the necessity for excluding evil women and whiskey from zones in which mobilization camps and cantonments are located.

WAR HAVING EFFECT—

"More insane patients were committed to the state hospital at Jamestown during the year ending July 1, 1917, than during the two-year period ending July 1, 1916," stated James A. Brown of the state board of control this morning. Mr. Brown is at a loss to account for this increase in insanity, but Simon Nagel, who has succeeded Sylvan Olson on the board, suggests that the great world's war may be having its effect. Yesterday the board received five notices of commitment to the state hospital. Four were women. The only male came from outside the state.

CAN'T QUIT JOB—

J. H. Calderhead, secretary of the railway commission, before taking up his present duties, was president of the board of education at his home in Cartwright, McKenzie county. Inasmuch as his new job occupies all of his time, he has tendered his resignation to the school board, and now he finds that his people refuse to allow him to quit. Mr. Calderhead, as president of the board, effected a satisfactory separation of the school district from the town and cleared up indebtedness remaining after the division, and put the district in a sound financial condition, and he feels he has done enough.

TORREN LAW IS GETTING LITTLE ATTENTION HERE

Statute Too Complicated and Too Uncertain to Interest Property-Holders

Although North Dakota has had a Torrens transfer law in effect for 20 days, it has not caused the least bit of commotion. It is extremely doubtful whether one North Dakotan out of any dozen knows that the state has such a law, or what it is about. The Torrens law was one of the achievements of the last assembly to which the league "pointed with pride." It was the very first bill introduced in the senate. Richard McCarten, a veteran democrat member re-elected last fall as a legislator, was the author.

Abstractors Worried.

When the bill came fresh from the hopper the second day of the session, North Dakota abstractors, who long have rejoiced in a brisk and lucrative business, trooped into the capitol to see what was going to happen to their bread and butter. The king of them all came over, gave the bill the once over, talked to a senator or two, and then said: "Say boys, what's the use of sticking 'round here—nothing's going to happen. Let's go home and saw wood," which everyone did.

The bill was very long and very obtuse. Few legislators took the time to read it, but they all voted for it, and the governor promptly signed it, and since that time it has been a very quiet, well behaved statute.

Nothing Done.

To date no property holders have been sufficiently interested to wade through its 32 sections and innumerable subdivisions and then to the number of 10 per cent of the taxpayers of any one county petition the board of commissioners to place it in effect. It may be made operative in any county on petition of 10 per cent of the freeholders. In none of the state's 53 counties has such petition been presented.

Advise Against It.

Good lawyers are advising against experimenting with this particular optional modification of the Torrens system. They regard it too uncertain, contend it is too much bound round with red tape, and that the property holder, after going through all of the evolutions decreed by the statute may then find it necessary to employ a good abstractor to ascertain "where he is at." A sliding scale of fees is provided by the law, and the register of deeds is made registrar of titles in counties where the act is adopted. North Dakota probably will undertake to repair defects in the measure at the next session and prospects are that in the meantime the law will remain a dead letter.

CROP CONDITIONS SPOTTY; MAY BE GOOD AND BAD IN SAME REGION--GRASS CONCERN

Conflicting reports which have gone out from North Dakota have caused much confusion. One region has reported conditions better than the average; another district in the same territory has reported everything shot to pieces. Both have been right, according to the testimony of experts interviewed for the Tribune.

Both Good and Bad.

"I have seen some of the best and some of the poorest crops I ever want to see in North Dakota," said Dr. W. F. Crewe, secretary of the livestock sanitary board, on his return this morning from Grand Forks, where he inspected livestock for admission to the fair.

"Within a space of ten miles one can find conditions so radically different that it almost surpasses belief," said Dr. Crewe. "I talked with a farmer ten miles south of Leeds who has 2,000 acres in grain and who told me he will have the best crop he has ever raised. At Grafton, where crops seemed a total loss a few days ago, a heavy, soaking rain has made such a change that everyone now predicts a better than average crop. I have seen wheat that easily will go 25 bushels to the acre, and in the same township I have seen fields being plowed under because they would not pay for threshing. At Jamestown things are in a very bad shape, but as you approach Valley City conditions begin to improve, and throughout the Red River valley prospects are bright. There are some bad dry spots around Devils Lake, and there are also some very good tracts of wheat in the Lake Region. These conditions are due to the fact that all the rains we have had this season have been local showers. We haven't had one good, general soaking rain since the seed went into the ground."

Soo Line Suffers.

R. B. Williams, advertising counsel or and idea man, finds conditions in general throughout the state unencouraging. West of Dickinson, he reports that up North, along the Soo Line and bordering the Piegree-Wilton line, crops are suffering badly, he states. From Bismarck to Garrison and Max, along the Soo Line, grain fields and pastures are suffering. Many hundreds of acres in this territory, says Mr. Williams, never will see the binder.

It is dry north of Dickinson and in the Kildeer country, except for a spot surrounding Center. South of New Salem, for 15 miles in the Heart river district, and thence down to the Mott line and in the vicinity of Flasher, New Leipzig and Elgin, conditions are promising. "They are looking forward to a 10-bushel crop there," says Mr. Williams, "and if they have any luck with the ever-elusive cloud they will get it."

Best Portion of Slope.

"Possibly the best portion of the Slope country," says Mr. Williams, "lies south of Fort Lincoln and on down through Emmons county. Much of the wheat in that territory still has a chance of making 15 to 20 bushels. Business men of Braddock and Hazleton are very optimistic. Taking the Slope in general, from Marmarth to Trotters and from Ellendale to Piegree, the outlook is not in the least encouraging, and the present estimate of what we shall get in the fall runs from 5 to 7 bushels per acre on the average."

Outlook Disappointing.

A trip from Bismarck to Minot and from Kenmare to Whitetail, Mont., proved very disappointing to F. C. Grieb, secretary of the Atlantic Elevator Co., who writes from Minneapolis to the state railway commission: "Between Bismarck and Minot they will raise something over feed and flour requirements. The greatest calamity in the Minot district, according to my way of looking at it, is the feed proposition, which is very serious. This applies from Minot to Kenmare. From Kenmare to Whitetail, Mont., conditions are better, but crops are very late. With a favorable fall they may make a fairly decent crop, especially of flax."

To Feed in Canada.

Cattlemen in the Kenmare country, reports Dr. Crewe, are almost at the end of their rope for grazing, and many plan to ship their herds into Canada to feed or to sell them off. There seems to be no chance of getting enough feed to carry them over the winter here. Good rains now may revive the pastures, but it is too late to make much of it.

Desperate Fight for Grain.

Despite lack of rain, J. M. Leum, owner of 2,100 acres near Mayville, expects a crop of between 10 and 12 bushels of wheat an acre this year.

F. B. Wood of Deering, owner of 1,100 acres, and who spent $2,800 in seed alone last spring, said he did not expect his crop to pay expenses. Lack of rain was the cause.

Although Minnesota crop reports were fine and also those from the Red River valley district, North Dakota and Montana conditions were reported poor today.

ALL OFFICERS OF NEW REGIMENT TO BE UP FOR EXAMS

Commissions Will Be Approved by War Department Only After Proper Qualifying

GUARDSMEN IN SERVICE ARE GIVEN PREFERENCE

All officers commissioned in the Second regiment by Governor Frazier must stand a strict federal examination before their commissions are approved by the war department. It was announced at military headquarters this morning. There had been considerable discussion on this point, and a reference to special regulations No. 58, issued by Major General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, April 2, 1917, set all doubts at rest.

Pertinent sections of these regulations read as follows:

"Persons hereafter commissioned as officers of the national guard shall not be recognized as such under any of the provisions of this act unless they have been selected from officers enlisted men of the national guard; officers on the reserve or unassigned list of the national guard; officers active or retired and former officers of the United States army, navy and marine corps; graduates of schools, colleges and universities where military science is taught under the supervision of an officer of the regular army, and for the technical branches and staff corps or departments such other civilians as may be especially qualified for duty therein.

"The provisions of this act shall not apply to any person hereafter appointed as an officer in the national guard unless he first shall have passed such tests as to physical, moral and professional fitness as the president shall prescribe. Examinations to determine such qualifications shall be conducted by a board of three commissioned officers appointed by the secretary of war from the regular army or national guard or both."

It is anticipated that the appointment of a board of examiners for commissioned officers will be made when plans for the inspection of the Second regiment for recognition by the federal government are announced.

Commissioners Issued.

Governor Frazier has issued new commissions in the Second regiment as follows: Captains: Millard P. Lawson, Minot; C. Leslie Wheeler, New Rockford; Thomas Lenevik, Devils Lake; Edward E. Kellerman, Dickinson; John Grant, Rolla; Harry E. Thomas, Ellendale; Charles I. Cook, Beach; first lieutenants: William O'Leary, Minot; John S. Cameron, New Rockford; Arthur McLean, Devils Lake; Gordon Turner, Carrington; Thomas Helms, Rolla; Fred J. Fleury, Dickinson; second lieutenants: Josiah C. Bradsell, Minot; John Koenen, Carrington; Milton Thomas, Rolla; Welland Orchard, Dickinson. The Dickinson lieutenants are for the new machine gun company, whose captain is still to be chosen. Two commissions for captain and lieutenant probably will be announced during the day.

FARGO BOY DROWNS IN RED RIVER

Fargo, N. D., July 20.—Jordan Elde, 8-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Elde of the Laving hotel on lower Front street, was drowned in the Red river yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, a few feet south of the Northern Pacific railway bridge. His 11-year-old companion, Harry Brandon, was rescued from a similar fate by Charles Felste, a well known character about the river front, who leaped into the swiftly flowing river, seized the struggling lad and swam to shore with him.

By the time Felste had Brandon safely on the shore, little Jordan had disappeared under the surface and Felste's efforts to find him were fruitless. True to its character, the river was reluctant to give up its dead, and at an early hour this morning the searchers were still combing the river bottom with hooks, trying to locate the body.

The two little boys, neither of whom could swim, had undressed under the railroad bridge and were playing about in the shallow water just south of the bridge. Witnesses say that one of the boys pushed the other out a little way into the river, and the other then seized the first one and pulled him out, too. Suddenly the swift current at that point seized both of them and threw them off their feet, sweeping them out into the deep water.
